

The Alliance of Indigenous Math Circles invites you to apply for AIMC Math Camp @ Navajo Prep

Past Sessions included such fun as:

- Candy Sharing with James Taylor (New Mexico Math Circles Collaborative)
- Dr. Henry Fowler, Diné College Mathematics, and Dr. Tatiana Shubin, San Jose State University
- How Many Ways Can I get to the Coffee Shop? and Mathematical Magic with Brendan Kelly (Harvard University)
- Catapult Construction and Launch with Yolanda Flores and Donna Fernandez (Navjao Prep)
- Swimming at the Aquatic Center and Stargazing at the San Juan Community College Observatory
- Is there Water on Other Planets? With Kevin Keeley (Navajo Prep)
- Traditional Storytelling

GREAT FUN PLANNED FOR 2018!! Join us!

Thanks to NTEC for their generous support!

Free! Grades 7-12.
For students of all backgrounds and tribes!

Navajo Preparatory School, Farmington, NM
May 28-June 2, 2018

Students will stay in supervised dormitories and engage in fun mathematics, engineering, cultural, and physical activities!
Apply before May 5 for first consideration. Spots limited!

Visit <https://aimathcircles.org/> to download an application.

Questions? Contact aimathcircles@gmail.com