An educational program connecting professional mathematics from around the world with indigenous students and their teachers. This effort grows out of a five-year project (Navajo Math Circles) and seeks to expand its impact by helping indigenous communities to discover the fun and beauty of mathematics as the birthright of all people.

DIRECTORS
- Dr. Henry Fowler, NTU
- Dr. Bob Klein, Ohio U.
- Dr. Tatiana Shubin, San Jose State U.
- Dr. Amanada Serenevy, Riverbend Math Ctr.

REGIONAL COORDINATORS
- Craig M. Young, TCBS
- Donna Fernandez, Navajo Prep
- LaVerne Lomakema, Hopi Jr./Sr. High

COMPONENTS

For K-12 Students
- After school Math Circles
- Math festivals
- Summer Math Camps

For Teachers
- PD Workshops
- School-Year Mentoring
- Scripts & other materials

WHAT
An educational program connecting professional mathematics from around the world with indigenous students and their teachers. This effort grows out of a five-year project (Navajo Math Circles) and seeks to expand its impact by helping indigenous communities to discover the fun and beauty of mathematics as the birthright of all people.

Contact: http://aimathcircles.org/